

CALVIN CAMP - CAMPER RULES

Respect for Authority

- I will attend and get involved in scheduled classes and activities.
- I will listen to all announcements.
- I will not work on crafts, write letters, etc. during meeting.
- I will give all medications to the nurse.
- I will stay out of the kitchen (health code).
- I will not leave campgrounds without permission from a full-time staff member.
- I will follow reasonable directions given by Camp Staff.

Respect for Others

- I will not cause or participate in any fights or bullying.
- I will not use profane or vulgar language.
- I will not bring cell phones, radios, cassette or CD players, MP3s or iPods, portable TVs, electronic games or skate board to Camp.
- Girls and boys will stay out of each other's rooms (this is state law).
- I will not take part in pranks or raids.
- I will leave other people's things alone.
- I will not have food or water fights in buildings, or damage property.
- I will be in bed and quiet by lights out.

Respect for Creation

- I will stay on marked trails when hiking and exploring.
- I will not pick wildflowers, damage plants, or trees, or throw rocks, pinecones or sticks.
- I will leave wild animals alone.
- I will not climb trees or cliffs or attempt the ropes courses or obstacle courses unless it is a scheduled activity.
- I will not play with fire.
- I will not litter.

Respect for Self

- I will not bring or use drugs, alcohol, tobacco or illegal substances at Camp.
- I will not wear indecent clothing while at Camp. My shorts will be modest and I will not wear questionable tops – no midriffs or spaghetti straps. I will keep shoes on unless I am in my cabin or room.
- I will not engage in physical contact with a member of the opposite sex.
- I will keep my space and Camp area neat and tidy.
